

BEGINNERS ESL ONLINE

USING NEGATIVE

Learning English
Curriculum

Since 1999

www.efl-esl.com

<https://teacher.efl-esl.com/students>

Using Negative

<https://www.efl-esl.com/Video/PP-lesson-17.mp3>

“NO” IS NEGATIVE
TO SAY “NO” PUT “NOT” AFTER THE VERB.

LISTEN

Narrator: Carol is not at home. She is in a restaurant.

Carol: Hello Sarah. Are you cold today?

Sarah: No, I am not cold.

Carol: Is Peter outside the restaurant?

Sarah: No, he is not outside.

ANSWER IN SENTENCES

1. Is Carol at home?
2. Is Sarah cold?
3. Is Peter outside the restaurant?

No, Carol is not at home.

No, she is not cold.

No, Peter is not outside the restaurant.

YOU SAY THE NEGATIVE ANSWER

1. Is it hot outside?
2. Are we cold?
3. Are they outside?
4. Are you in a restaurant?
5. Is she at home?
6. Is Peter a waiter?

No, it is not hot outside.
No, we are not cold
No, they are not outside.
No, I am not in a restaurant.
No, she is not at home.
No, Peter is not a waiter.

LISTEN: THE VERB AFTER HE, SHE AND IT USUALLY ENDS WITH AN "S"

I order some juice.
He orders some juice.

They like their cell phone.
She likes her cell phone.

I hear my cell phone.
It rings.

You phone your friend.
She phones you.

COMPLETE WHAT TOM AND PETER SAY.

Narrator: Tom and Peter are in a restaurant.

Tom: Does your coffee taste good?

Peter: Yes, it tastes good.

LISTEN

Narrator: Tom and Peter are in a restaurant.

Tom: Does your coffee taste good?

Peter: Yes, it tastes good.

Learn English Online!

Beginners English Courses include:

- Grammar
 - Role Play
 - Written Exercises
 - Practice questions
 - Games
 - and more!
-
- Video and Audio with every lesson
 - Student Reader with every lesson
 - Student Worksheets with every lesson

<https://teacher.efl-esl.com/students>